A 3D printed portrait of a man in a black hat and white ruff collar, identical to the one on the newspaper cover. The portrait is shown against a dark background.

LETTERS FROM NATURE

Dear Mr. President,

So, I get that you have a lot on your plate right now. But I have to tell you, this has been a tough year for me.

Climate change is real, it's happening, it's not if anymore but when, and you have to act on it. You make a plan and stick with it, make real cuts, cut greenhouse gases, pledge to energy and stop supporting fossil doesn't win political because it's the species.

Beste Koningin Maxima,

Ik ben de rivier de Maas, en het klimaat verandert mijn wereld.

De rivieren in Nederland zijn het mooist als de zon schijnt. Het water danst op en neer, lichtbruin met een roze gloed. De bomen groeien hoger en bloeien meer, de vogels zingen luider en het goudgele koren staat in rijke opeenvolging.

A dark, three-dimensional cube is the central focus, standing on a dark, reflective surface. The word "MOST" is printed in a light, sans-serif font on the front face of the cube. The background is dark and filled with numerous small, dark, reflective particles that catch the light, creating a textured, almost crystalline appearance. The overall mood is mysterious and contemplative.
